MARKET SHOWED STRENGTH. NARKET SHOWED STRENGTH.

New York, July 29.—Ah under-current of strength pervaded the stock market today, despite the more acute weakness of international remittances, the rate on London, for example, falling to the lowest quotation since last March.
Offerings of sterling bills were unussaily extensive, according to the reports of dealers, some of whom were inclined to regars the selling as speculative in large part. French, Italian and Spanish exchange reacted in sympathy with the break in British rates.

Sacchas derived much of their support from the optimistic statement of Governor Harding of the Foderal Reserve Board regarding credit conditions Greater case of call money, most of which loaned at 7 per cent, was an additional factor in the advance of prices.

The market was at its best in the finish here when rails were brought for al hour, when rails were brought for-eard on rumors that the interstate commerce commission would soon an-nounce freight and passenger rates accounce freight and passenger rates acceptable to the railway executives.

Reading, Southern Pacific and Southern Ballway featured the more active transportations at gains of one to two points. Substantial gains were also made by Replogic and Crucible Steels and United States Steel made a net advance of 1 1-4 points after further early heaviness.

Oils, motors, woolens and textiles olis motors, woolens and textiles railled with such ease as to cause urgent short covering and several of the prominent miscellaneous specialties cosed at gains of one to three points. Trading in bonds was less active, but the force was stronger associative for the tone was stronger, especially for Liberty issues and several of the inter-sational group. Total sales, par value.
